Dear Molly:

As you may or may not have heard I have been trapped into temporary Government service. I have been down here since the middle of January with the Central Intelligence Agency. Accordingly your last letter of June 5th was somewhat delayed in reaching me. I am sending off the enclosed bill to Kent Healy forthwith.

I now have another job for you. I enclose the manuscript of a report on a Round Table meeting we held in New Haven back in December. I would like fifty copies of this run off as soon as possible. When it is ready could you also prepare a copy of the enclosed draft letter for Kent Healy's signature to go to each of the participants along with a copy of the Round Table report. You might check by phone to see if Healy will be in town to sign these letters, and if he will not, try either John Miller, Jean Rostow or Ralph Brown. If none of them are available send them all back to me for signature. I enclose a list of the names and addresses of the participants to whom this draft letter should be sent.

Could you also ditto enough copies of the enclosed memorandum to contributors to go to each of them along with a copy of the report of the Round Table. I also enclose a list of the contributors with their addresses.

If you have any doubts or questions about all this drop me a line at my new Washington address which will be, after July 1st, 421 Argyle Drive, Alexandria, Virginia. I expect to be here, alas, all summer long. I trust the prospects for you are not quite so grim.

Best regards.

MAX F. MILLIKAN
